the third in the fury trilogy following on from the bestsellers pacific fury and anzac fury shanghai is a city defined by war the city and its armed struggles were central to the relationship between china and australia from the fall of the manchus in 1912 to the communist victory in 1949 yet with the notable exception of george chinese morrison the australasian contribution has been largely neglected and no single volume covers the experiences of the many remarkable australians caught up in the drama set against a backdrop of imperial splendour and abject squalor shanghai fury examines one of the seminal periods of the 20th century in a compellingly readable narrative that mixes personal memoir with combat action to complete a powerful trilogy on australians at war

Blackthorne Brothers Prequel: Healing Springs Romance

2019-04-22

In this volume Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema. The world of modernity in which systems replace individuals is conveyed by Lang's mastery of cinematic set design, composition, and editing. Lang presents not only a decades-long vision of cinematic narrative which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno, Brecht, Benjamin, and Kracauer. From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s, Lang's films, Gunning claims, are among the most precious records of the twentieth century. The films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enrich our understanding of a great artist and in so doing reimagine what a film artist is: an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted, an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics, history, biography, and theory.

The book comprises a selection of the papers presented at an international conference on meaning as production, the role of the unwritten held in Singapore in 1995. It takes textual analysis beyond the traditional boundaries of literary studies into a more culturally dynamic field of social semiotics, rhetorical studies, hermeneutics, and theories of interpretation. There are also essays that explore the issues with reference to canonical literary texts or authors.
