A Religious Encyclopaedia Or Dictionary of Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal, and Practical Theology 1882 paul atkinson explores the remarkable world of opera through his fieldwork with the internationally known welsh national opera company in order to show us how cultural phenomena are produced and enacted he takes us on stage and behind the scenes into the collective social action that goes into the realization of an opera the author demonstrates how artistic interpretation is translated into the routine work of the rehearsal studio and the theatre and how producers negotiate a practical reality with her or his performers to ultimately create extraordinary performances through the mundane everyday work that makes them possible the author calls for a sustained investigation of cultural phenomena not based solely on textual analysis but on the importance of collective work and social organization atkinson s work will appeal to anthropologists and sociologists who study the performance arts as well as to those engaged in theatre arts opera and music

Assessing Middle and High School Social Studies & English 2013-10-02 magical realism has become almost synonymous with latin american fiction but this way of representing the layered and often contradictory reality of the topsy turvy late capitalist globalizing world finds equally vivid expression in u s multiethnic and british postcolonial literature and film writers and filmmakers such as oscar zeta acosta ana castillo julie dash hanif kureishi and salman rushdie have made brilliant use of magical realism to articulate the trauma of dislocation and the legacies of colonialism that people of color experience in the postcolonial multiethnic world this book seeks to redeem and refine the theory of magical realism in u s multiethnic and british postcolonial literature and film frederick aldama engages in theoretically sophisticated readings of ana castillo s so far from god oscar zeta acosta s autobiography of a brown buffalo salman rushdie s midnight s children shame the satanic verses and the moor s last sigh julie dash s daughters of the dust and stephen frears and hanif kureishi s sammy and rosie get laid coining the term magicorealism to characterize these works aldama not only creates a postethnic critical methodology for enlarging the contact zone between the genres of novel film and autobiography but also shatters the interpretive lens that traditionally confuses the transcription of the real world where truth and falsity apply with narrative modes governed by other criteria

The Medical Review of Reviews 1897 tracing the path from troy s destruction to rome s foundation the aeneid explores the transition between past and future as the trojans struggle to found a new city and the narrator sings of his audience s often painful history memory becomes intertwined with a crucial leitmotif the challenge of being part of a group that survives violence and destruction only to face the daunting task of remembering what was lost this book offers a new reading of the aeneid that engages with critical work on memory and questions the prevailing view that aeneas must forget his disastrous history in order to escape from a cycle of loss considering crucial scenes such as aeneas reconstruction of celaeno s prophecy and his slaying of turnus this book demonstrates that memory in the aeneid is a reconstructive and dynamic process one that offers a social and narrative mechanism for integrating a traumatic past with an uncertain future
