 politics of violence and fear in mena the case of egypt explores the state orchestrated violence in egypt syria and turkey justified by vaguely defined terrorist threats it analyses the wars on terror as cases of lengthy securitisation processes that reinforced and legitimised autocratic practices of oppression in each country paying particular attention to egypt s war on terror that began 1981 the book looks into how and with what implications such securitisation processes are upheld throughout lengthy periods of time reworking the traditional securitisation theory this book offers a novel securitisation model the ter model that addresses the questions of securitisation durability and is applicable in non liberal empirical contexts the monograph is ideal
