excerpt from holiday papers 1910 11 ordinarily we discuss schools there is reason enough for it the constitution requires the maintenance of a state system of schools the education law alone covers three hundred pages in our consolidated laws the people of the state have invested in school property in the last school year we raised by public tax for school purposes and the total expenditure of the people of the state for education mounted up to no other money for public uses is paid so cheer fully it must be a very deep concern a universal enthusiasm that is so nobly expressed eagerness and idealism must be bent upon some great end for once at least let us discuss that about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
