Calendar, History, and General Summary of Regulations 1897 from one of the most perceptive observers of the english today comes a brilliantly insightful mordantly funny account of their seemingly irrational embrace of nationalism england s recent lurch to the right appears to be but one example of the nationalist wave sweeping across the world yet as acclaimed irish critic fintan o toole suggests in the politics of pain it is in reality a phenomenon rooted in world war ii we must look not to the vagaries of the european union but instead far back to the end of the british empire if we hope to understand our most fraternal ally and the royal mess in which the british now find themselves o toole depicts a roiling nation that almost ludicrously dreams of a german invasion if only to get the blood going and that erupts in faux outrage over regulations on prawn flavored crisps a sympathetic yet unsparing observer o toole asks how did a great nation bring itself to the point of such willful self harm his answer represents one of the most profound portraits of the english since sarah lyall s new york times bestseller the anglo files

Medieval Crime Fiction 2019-04-23 the advent of the new age has alerted us to the conflicted nature of historical memory which defined the 20th century while simultaneously assaulting us with new historical upheavals that demand responsibility and critical consideration as the historical text bears traces of the writing subject the element of deception is remarkable meaning historical memory easily lends itself to forgery and false and subjective projections as such how do we think about the past about history about memory and how does memory function is history an objective account a collection of dry reliable facts is it an imaginative narrative tinged with nostalgia a projection of our wishful thinking the workings of our subjective perceptions and attitudes our states of mind the essays in this volume focus on the relevance of the past to the present and future in terms of the shifting attitudes to personal and collective experiences that have shaped dominant western critical discourses about history memory and nostalgia the contributors here take issue with the epistemological hermeneutic ethical and aesthetic dimensions of the representational practices through which we revisit and revise the meaning of the past
