corrections and explanations for the bad examples displays actual forms and records used by law enforcement agencies correctional departments and related organizations fosters the development of critical and culturally competent writing skills this is the extraordinary story of the engagement between 250 young australians who enlisted in 1915 and died in the battle of fromelles of 1916 their families and three british scientists in 2009 the bodies of these 250 soldiers were excavated by oxford archaeology among them were the wilson brothers who with their comrades were subsequently reburied in individual marked graves in the new cemetery in fromelles village the battle of fromelles needs no introduction nor do the losses sustained here we focus on 166 of the 250 soldiers who were excavated from six mass graves adjacent to pheasant wood in 2009 and who have since been identified each has his own story to tell as does his family we explore aspects of these lost lives while telling the story of their recovery and identification this is the story of how these lost soldiers were excavated and identified it is told by the scientists who led the excavation the anthropological and dna analyses and the identification process it is their story of involvement with and commitment to this fascinating project in which many combined decades of professional experience were pooled to help achieve a fitting final resting place names restored for these brave men and belated solace for their families much has been written about the battle of fromelles the missing soldiers their families quests to restore their identities and the discovery and excavation of the graves this book tells a new story it is the scientist s story behind naming the fromelles
