Jingo 2009-12-01

it was so much easier to blame it on them it was bleakly depressing to think that they were us war is brewing on the discworld an island has appeared from the ocean depths right in the middle of the sea which separates the proud empires of klatch and ankh morpork of course no one would dream of starting a war with the neighbours without a perfectly good reason such as a strategic piece of old rock for instance but when a klatchian prince is almost assassinated peace talks break down and violent nationalism begins to spread ankh morpork prepares to fight only thing is they don't have an army or much in the way of weapons commander sam vimes and the officially disbanded city watch get caught up in a deadly political game where the enemy appears to be on both sides and no one will listen to reason and if they don't stop this absurd war no one will be generous amusing and the ideal boarding point for those who have never visited discworld saturday telegraph jingo is the fourth book in the city watch series but you can read the discworld novels in any order

The Light Fantastic 2009-11-24

darkness isn't the opposite of light it is simply its absence what was radiating from the book was the light that lies on the far side of darkness the light fantastic the discworld is in danger heading towards a seemingly inevitable collision with a malevolent red star its magic fading it needs a hero and fast what it doesn't need is rincewind an inept and cowardly wizard who is still recovering from the trauma of falling off the edge of the world or twoflower the well meaning tourist whose luggage has a mind and legs of its own which is a shame because that's all there is his spectacular inventiveness makes the discworld series one of the perennial joys of modern fiction mail on saturday incredibly funny compulsively readable the times the light fantastic is the second book in the wizards series but you can read the discworld novels in any order

The Last Hero 2016-09-01

pratchett's perceptive and laugh out loud discworld series is back as one aging hero with a grudge decides enough is enough beautifully illustrated throughout by paul kidby an enduring endearing presence in comic literature guardian it stars the legendary cohen the barbarian a legend in his own lifetime cohen can remember when a hero didn't have to worry about fences and lawyers and civilisation and when people didn't tell you off for killing dragons but he can't always remember these days where he put his teeth so now with his ancient sword and his new walking stick and his old friends and they're very old friends cohen the barbarian is going on one final quest he's going to climb the highest mountain in the discworld and meet his gods the last hero in the world is going to return what the first hero stole with a vengeance that'll mean the end of the world if no one stops him in time readers love the last hero a wonderful addition to the series that made me chuckle almost non stop and even burst out laughing loudly in public places goodreads reviewer it wonderfully caps rincewind's series of adventures neatly and directly tying up his disc spanning journey that began in the foundational the colour of magic and the light fantastic goodreads reviewer the late great sir terry's conan tribute to robert e howard what happens to super men when they get old there teeth fall out this old man steptoe with muscles but the extra special illustrations that give this book that wow goodreads reviewer i read the last few pages weeping while grinning like a loon when sir terry's words tickle me in all the correct places bring on the cliché laugh and cry goodreads reviewer pratchett managed to perfectly blend a carefully crafted plot with humour steampunk gadgets and of course the librarian pratchett really was the comic fantasy master goodreads reviewer pratchett's witty humour finds its perfect target a group of aging heroes a dark lord and a group of misfit heroes trying to stop them from ending the world goodreads reviewer

The Colour Of Magic 2008-12-26

named as one of the bbc's 100 most inspiring novels it was octarine the colour of magic it was alive and glowing and vibrant and it was the undisputed pigment of the imagination somewhere between thought and reality exists the discworld a magical world not totally unlike our own except for the fact that it travels through space on the shoulders of four giant elephants who in turn stand on the shell of an astronomically huge star turtle of course rincewind is the world's worst wizard who has just been handed a very important job to look after the world's first tourist upon whose survival rests the peace and prosperity of the land unfortunately their journey across the disc includes facing robbers monsters mercenaries and death himself and the whole thing's just a game of the gods that might send them over the edge if you've never read a discworld novel what's the matter with you guardian pratchett uses his other world to hold up a distorting mirror to our own the times the colour of magic is the first book in the wizards series but you can read the discworld novels in any order
