lying at the very edge of the eighteenth century city behind high walls and forbidding gates the dublin foundling hospital was long viewed with horror and suspicion yet following its closure it seemed to have slipped from the city s memory the least of these uncovers the story of the hospital from its origins as a workhouse in 1703 during the penal laws to its demise in 1830 its mission to take in the children of poor catholics and raise them as protestants loyal to king and empire this was an institution where every infant was tattooed with an identification number where thousands of children were fed opium and where as with many foundling hospitals the death toll was vast but why did it endure for so long and why did quite so many die
