State Policies and Women's Autonomy in China, the Republic of Korea, and India, 1950-2000 2000 state policies can enormously influence gender equity they can mitigate cultural constraints on women's autonomy as in china and india or slow the pace of change in gender equity as in the republic of korea policies to provide opportunities for women's empowerment should be accompanied by communication efforts to alter cultural values that limit women's access to those opportunities

Sustaining Economic Welfare 2000 with the notable exception of china in most countries with below median per capita income the growth rate of the population is greater than that of total wealth this trend is ultimately unsustainable for many of these countries policies for sustainability will require both boosting savings and slowing population growth

Proposed Strategy for a Regional Exchange Rate Arrangement in Post-crisis East Asia 2000 a coordinated action by east asian countries to stabilize their currencies against a common basket of major currencies broadly representative of their average structure of trade and foreign direct investment would help stabilize both intraregional exchange rates and effective exchange rates in a way consistent with the medium term objective of promoting trade investment and growth in the region

Social Capital and the Quality of Government 2000 governments perform better where there is more general trust and strong civic norms they perform less well where citizens are less trusting and less civic minded

Intersectoral Dynamics and Economic Growth in Ecuador 2000 the authors analyze sectoral growth in ecuador using multivariate cointegration analysis they find significant long run relationships between the agricultural industrial and service sectors moreover they are able to derive dynamic sector models that combine the short run links between the three sectors with long run dynamics their findings suggest that more attention should be paid to interdependencies in sectoral growth since an improved understanding of intersectoral dynamics may facilitate the implementation of policy aimed at increasing economic growth in ecuador summary

Contractual Savings, Stock, and Asset Markets 2002 cross country and time series evidence from some oecd and developing countries shows that pension funds and life and nonlife insurance companies contribute to stock market development

New Products for Sale from the Superintendent of Documents 2000 the case for index funds is predicated on the observed inability of active managers to outperform market indexes over long periods agency conflicts between investors and fund managers are another important motivation as index funds benefit from simple unambiguous accountability

The Relevance of Index Funds for Pension Investment in Equities 2013-03-09 thorvald stoltenberg president of the norwegian red cross chairman of the editorial advisory board despite the very optimistic language on the imminence of new accessions to the european union that came out of the june 2001 european council in gothen burg it will serve no good purpose to neglect the fact that eu membership for the central and eastern european applicants remains a difficult process painful experience makes it prudent to exercise caution in predicting developments within the european union negotiations may drag out snags may appear and some thing may happen on the way to ratification so perhaps it is wise to take a broader view of european integration and therefore integration within the north european barents and baltic sea region that is the focus of this yearbook eu membership for those countries that are able to satisfy the copenhagen requirements and the chapters of the acquis communautaire that have subsequently been specified is certainly a prize worth fighting for but all is not lost if some of the applicants end up not joining the union as a result of the current enlargement round even more important than formal membership is the process of growing together that has taken place simultaneously with the membership negotiations we are dealing here with integration in the real world of trade investments division of labour politics environment hard and soft security people to people relations etc
