Turning Archival 2022-09-06 this book tracks the conceptual journeying of the term transgender from the global north where it originated along with the physical embodied journeying of transgender asylum seekers from countries within africa to south africa and considers the interrelationships between the two the term transgender transforms as it travels taking on meaning in relation to bodies national homes institutional frameworks and imaginaries this study centres on the experiences and narratives of people that can be usefully termed gender refugees gathered through a series of life story interviews it is the argument of this book that the departures border crossings arrivals and perceptions of south africa for gender refugees have been both enabled and constrained by the contested meanings and politics of this emergence of transgender this book explores through these narratives the radical constitutional legal possibilities for transgender in south africa the dissonances between the possibilities of constitutional law and the pervasive politics logic of binary sex gender within south african society in doing so this book enriches the emergent field of transgender studies and challenges some of the current dominant theoretical and political perceptions of transgender it offers complex narratives from the african continent regarding sex gender sexuality and notions of home concerning particular geo politically situated bodies

Transgender Refugees and the Imagined South Africa 2018-11-01 in violent intimacies aslı zengin traces how trans people in turkey creatively negotiate and resist everyday cisheteronormative violence drawing on the history and ethnography of the trans communal life in istanbul zengin develops an understanding of cisheteronormative violence that expands beyond sex gender and sexuality she shows how cisheteronormativity forms a connective tissue among neoliberal governmentality biopolitical and necropolitical regimes nationalist religiosity and authoritarian management of social difference as much as trans people are shaped by these processes they also transform them in intimate ways transness in turkey provides an insightful site for developing new perspectives on statecraft securitization and surveillance family and kin making urban geography and political life zengin offers the concept of violent intimacies to theorize this entangled world of the trans everyday where violence and intimacy are co constitutive violent intimacies emerge from trans people s everyday interactions with the police religious and medical institutions street life family and kinship and trans femicides and funerals the dynamic of violent intimacies prompts new understandings of violence and intimacy and the world making struggles of trans people in a middle eastern context

Violent Intimacies 2024-01-02 what does it mean to be trans a common understanding of transgender or trans for short is that a person s gender differs from the sex they were assigned at birth however many see the idea of being trans as more complicated as an active process of challenging the formal structures that govern how gender is defined for different people and in different times places and contexts gender itself can be a broad entity or a very narrow one and in various ways understandings of trans can seem too expansive or too restrictive

Trans Bodies, Trans Selves 2022 one of time s 100 must read books of 2020 longlisted for the 2021 rathbones folio prize mark gevisser is clear eyed and wise enough to have a sharp sense of how tough the struggle has been and how hard it will be now for those who have not succeeded in finding shelter from prejudice colm tóibín the guardian a groundbreaking look at how the issues of sexuality and gender identity divide and unite the world today more than seven years in the making mark gevisser s the pink line journeys across the world s queer frontiers is an exploration of how the conversation around sexual orientation and gender identity has come to divide and describe the world in an entirely new way over the first two decades of the twenty first century no social movement has brought change so quickly and with such dramatically mixed results while same sex marriage and gender transition are celebrated in some parts of the world laws are being strengthened to criminalize homosexuality and gender nonconformity in others as new globalized queer identities are adopted by people across the world thanks to the digital revolution fresh culture wars have emerged a new pink line gevisser argues has been drawn across the globe and he takes readers to its frontiers between sensitive and sometimes startling profiles of the queer folk he s encountered along the pink line gevisser offers sharp analytical chapters exploring identity politics religion gender ideology capitalism human rights moral panics geopolitics and what he calls the new transgender culture wars his subjects include a ugandan refugee in flight to canada a trans woman fighting for custody of her child in moscow a lesbian couple campaigning for marriage equality in mexico genderqueer high schoolers coming of age in michigan a gay israeli palestinian couple searching for common ground and a community of kothis women s hearts in men s bodies who run a temple in an indian fishing village what results is a moving and multifaceted picture of the world today and the queer people defining it eye opening heartfelt expertly researched and compellingly narrated the pink line is a monumental and urgent journey of unprecedented scope into twenty first century identity seen through the border posts along the world s new lgbtq frontiers

Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies 2022-11-01 in the terrible we cameron awkward rich thinks with the bad feelings and mad habits of thought that persist in both transphobic discourse and trans cultural production observing that trans studies was founded on a split from and disavowal of madness illness and disability awkward rich argues for and models a trans criticism that works against this disavowal by tracing the coproduction of the categories of disabled and transgender in the united states at the turn of the twentieth century and analyzing transmasculine literature and theory by eli clare elliot dylane dylan scholinski and others awkward rich suggests that thinking with maladjustment might provide new perspectives on the impasses arising from the conflicted relationships among trans feminist and queer in so doing he demonstrates that rather than only impeding or confining trans life thought and creativity forms of maladjustment have also been and will continue to be central to their development duke university press scholars of color first book award recipient

The Terrible We 2022-08-08 la presente investigación aborda tres aspectos centrales para comprender a profundidad los derechos de las personas lgbt en primer lugar precisa el significado y los antecedentes históricos de las llamadas identidades diversas a continuación desarrolla las nociones e implicaciones de las violencias individuales y estructurales más comunes que enfrentan a nivel global y en un ámbito local determinado por último ofrece una mirada panorámica sobre los avances jurídicos contemporáneos en materia de garantías a las víctimas de violaciones a los derechos humanos por motivos de prejuicio sexual y de género y ofrece algunas recomendaciones en clave de reforma legal con el objeto de incrementar su aptitud restaurativa y preventiva

Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1960s 2019-11-14 across the world today people of all ages are doing fascinating creative messy things with gender these people have a rich history but one that is often left behind by narratives of trans lives that focus on people with stable binary uncomplicated gender identities as a result these stories tend to be recent binary stereotyped medicalised and white before we were trans is a new and different story of gender that seeks not to be comprehensive or definitive but by blending culture feminism and politics to widen the scope of what we think of as trans history by telling the stories of people across the globe whose experience of gender has been transgressive or not characterised by stability or binary categories transporting us from renaissance venice to seventeenth century angola from edo japan to north america the stories this book tells leave questions and resist conclusions they are fraught with ambiguity and defy modern western terminology and categories not least the category of trans itself but telling them provides a history that reflects the richness of modern trans reality more closely than any previously written before we were trans is a history and celebration of gender in all its fluidity ambiguity and complexity

Before We Were Trans 2022-06-23 the first book to focus on the experience of lgbt archival research finalist for the 2016 lambda literary award in lgbt anthology presented by the lambda literary foundation out of the closet into the archives takes readers inside the experience of how it feels to do queer archival research and queer research in the archive the archive much like the closet exposes various levels of public and privateness recognition awareness refusal impulse disclosure framing silence cultural intelligibility each mediated and determined through subjective insider outsider ways of knowing the contributors draw on their experiences conducting research in disciplines such as sociology african american studies english communications performance studies anthropology and women s and gender studies these essays challenge scholars to engage with their affective experience of being in the archive illuminating how the space of the archive requires a different kind of deeply personal embodied research out of the closet into the archives represents the exciting directions for scholarship enabled by this rapid growth of new lgbtq archives although mindful of critiques of the archive as an institution of power and attentive to experiences and ephemerality that can escape it the essays published here practice forms of the archival turn that put relentless curiosity and unapologetic passion to use as methods for intellectual invention from the foreword by ann cvetkovich amy l stone is associate professor of sociology and anthropology at trinity university and author of gay rights at the ballot box jaime cantrell is visiting assistant professor of english at the university of mississippi

Out of the Closet, Into the Archives 2015-11-20 with a focus on historic sites this volume explores the recent history of non heteronormative americans from the early twentieth century onward and the places associated with these communities authors explore how queer identities are connected with specific places places where people gather socialize protest mourn and celebrate the focus is deeper look at how sexually variant and gender non conforming americans constructed identity created communities and fought to have rights recognized by the government each chapter is accompanied by prompts and activities that invite readers to think critically and immerse themselves in the subject matter while working collaboratively with others

Identities and Place 2019-11-01 language and identities offers a broad survey of our current state of knowledge on the connections between variability in language use and the construction negotiation maintenance and performance of identities at different levels individual group regional and national it brings together over 20 specially commissioned chapters written by distinguished international scholars on a range of topics around the language identity nexus the collection deals sequentially with identities at various levels both social and personal using detailed empirical evidence the chapters illustrate how the multi layered dynamic nature of identities is realised through linguistic behaviour several chapters in the volume focus on contexts in which we might expect to observe a foregrounding of factors involved in the definition and delimitation of self and other for example cases in which identities may be disputed changing blurred peripheral or imposed such a focus on complex contexts allows clearer insight into the identity making and marking functions of language the collection approaches these topics from a range of perspectives with contributions from sociolinguists sociophoneticians linguistic anthropologists clinical linguists and forensic linguists

Language and Identities 2009-12-18 2020 diamond anniversary book award from the national communication association nca the increased visibility of transgender people in mainstream media exemplified by time magazine s declaration that 2014 marked a transgender tipping point was widely believed to signal a civil rights breakthrough for trans communities in the united states in terrorizing gender mia fischer challenges this narrative of progress bringing together transgender queer critical race legal surveillance and media studies to analyze the cases of chelsea manning cece mcdonald and monica jones tracing how media and state actors collude in the violent disciplining of these trans women fischer exposes the traps of visibility by illustrating that dominant representations of trans people as deceptive deviant and threatening are integral to justifying normalizing and reinforcing the state sanctioned violence enacted against them the heightened visibility of transgender people fischer argues has actually occasioned a conservative backlash characterized by the increased surveillance of trans people by the security state evident in debates over bathroom access laws the trans military ban and the rescission of federal protections for transgender students and workers terrorizing gender concludes that the current moment of trans visibility constitutes a contingent cultural and national belonging given the gendered and racialized violence that the state continues to enact against trans communities particularly those of color
