The Mirror of parliament, ed. by J.H. Barrow. 8th parl., 2nd session-12th parl., 3rd session. 13th parl., 1st session-14th parl., 1st session 2016-03-25 detective sergeant chase barrington has never forgotten the girl he fell in love with in high school he and josie munro planned to marry as soon as they d graduated but fate stepped in and chase made the painful decision to end it without telling josie the truth when twelve year old daniel logan witnesses the rape of his mother he grabs a gun and shoots the perpetrator dead chase attends the scene and daniel s arrested and charged with murder a decade after graduating high school child psychologist

josie munro has recently returned to her hometown when she s appointed by the court to provide a report on daniel s mental capacity it s inevitable that she runs into the detective on the case unaware of the real reason why chase ended their relationship her anger and grief from all those years ago immediately rise to the surface with no choice but to carry on and complete the task she s been given she determines to keep chase as far away from her as possible and get the job over with as quickly as she can but things aren t that easy if her report proves daniel knew that shooting the perpetrator was wrong his matter will proceed to trial if found guilty he s facing up to fifteen years in jail as josie gets to know daniel through therapy sessions she realizes he knew exactly what he was doing he meant to kill his mother s rapist and he s not at all sorry she s torn between doing what the law requires of her against what her heart knows is right she s also conflicted over her feelings for chase she wants to hate him but she can t will she follow her head or her heart
