and so forth highlighting or exaggerating associations between the more unsettling consequences of modernization and alien influence has thus formed part of a strategy whereby elites in many asian societies have sought to construct new forms of legitimacy for old patterns of dominance over the masses the apparatus of modern systems of mass education often inherited from colonial rulers has been just one instrument in such campaigns of state legitimation this book presents analyses of a range of contemporary projects of citizenship formation across asia in order to identify those issues and concerns most central to asian debates over the construction of modern identities its main focus is on schooling but also examines other vehicles for citizenship formation such as museums and the internet the role of religion in particular islam in debates over citizenship and identity in certain asian societies and the relationship between state centred identity discourses and the experience of increasingly globalized elites with chapters from an international team of contributors this interdisciplinary volume will appeal to students and scholars of asian culture and society asian education comparative education and citizenship on the life and political career of inayatullah khan mashriqi 1888 1963 founder of khaksar movement this set includes all four volumes of the critically acclaimed history of central asia series the epic plains and arid deserts of central asia have witnessed some of the greatest migrations as well as many of the most transformative developments in the history of civilization christoph baumer's ambitious four volume treatment of the region charts the 3000 year drama of scythians and sarmatians soviets and transcontinental silk roads trade routes and the transmission of ideas across the steppes and the breathless and brutal conquests of alexander the great and chinghiz khan masterfully interweaving the stories of individuals and peoples the author's engaging prose is richly augmented throughout by colour photographs taken on his own travels this set includes the age of the steppe warriors volume 1 the age of the silk roads volume 2 the norms at two levels and discusses a hypothetical united states columbus to war security community that could result in peace in the region in 2011 the middle east saw more people peacefully protesting long entrenched dictatorships than at any time in its history the dictators of tunisia egypt and yemen were deposed in a matter of weeks by nonviolent marches imprecisely described as the arab spring the revolution has been convulsing the whole region ever since beyond an uneven course in different countries philosophy of nonviolence examines how 2011 may have ushered in a fundamental break in world history the break the book argues is animated by nonviolence as the new spirit of the philosophy of history philosophy of nonviolence maps out a system articulating nonviolence in the revolution the rule of constitutional law it yearns for and the demand for accountability that inspired the revolution in the first place part one revolution provides modern context to the generational revolt probes the depth of middle eastern islamic humanism and addresses the paradox posed by nonviolence to the perpetual peace ideal part two constitutionalism explores the reconfiguration of legal norms and power structures mechanisms of institutional change and constitution making processes in pursuit of the nonviolent anima part three justice covers the broadening concept of dictatorship as crime against humanity an essential part of the philosophy of nonviolence it follows its frustrated emergence in the french revolution its development in the middle east since 1860 through the trials of arab dictators the pyramid of accountability post dictatorship and the scope of foreign intervention in nonviolent revolutions throughout the text professor mallat maintains thoroughly abstract and philosophical arguments while substantiating those arguments in historical context enriched by a close participation in the ongoing middle east revolution
