all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com mt 10 8 freely you have received freely give the bible says we re predestined to glory but it doesn't say we re predestined to faith as calvinism teaches the differences between the language of the bible and the language of calvinism indicate the doctrinal errors of calvinism all reformed theologians teach predestination to faith which includes faith in a sequence the bible doesn't include it in the golden chain of romans 8 28 30 includes 1 foreknowledge 2 predestination 3 calling 4 justification and 5 glorification paul intentionally omits faith from this sequence because predestination is to glorification and sanctification not to faith paying attention to this detail alters calvinism's tulip's total depravity doesn't include an inability to believe the gospel election is not unconditional since god elects all whom he has known forever in the eternal messiah who entered into union with him through justification by unpredestined faith irresistible grace is after justification for sanctification and glorification limited atonement is unbiblical and perseverance of the saints is confirmed in the strongest possible way to the extent it's synonymous with eternal security and the certainty of glorification most other anti-calvinist books deal heavily with the moral and philosophical travesties of calvinism for example i highly recommend what love is this by dave hunt but this book tries to provide better expositions of the passages that lead good godly men to accept calvinism in the first place like romans 8 romans 9 john 6 and ephesians 1 by paying attention to the small underappreciated detail that the bible says predestination is to sanctification and glory not to faith if i felt this task was already accomplished i wouldn't have written this book but would have promoted the books that already did it white calvinist there is no meaningful non-reformed exegesis of john 6 37 45 available as numerous as the attempts of arminian exegetes to find some way around the testimony of these verses has been not even a plausible solution has been offered that does not require the complete dismantling of the text redefinition of words or the insertion of utterly foreign concepts flowers non-calvinist would anyone dare adopt or seek to defend this most troubling doctrine of reprobation if not for the perceived defense offered by the apostle in romans 9 i rejoice in biblical non-calvinistic predestination to glory not to faith biblical predestination is about the certainty of god's completion of our salvation through sanctification and glorification predestination shouldn't be a word that conjures up images of calvinistic horrors of reprobation in the minds of those who haven't been indoctrinated to focus on the good fortunes of the elect instead predestination should be a word that gives great joy because it underlies the biblical doctrine of the certainty of our future glorification rom 5 3 having been justified by faith we rejoice in the sure and certain hope of sharing in the glory of god my hope is that this book won't only be a defense against calvinism and its harms and rescue some born-again calvinists from calvinism but also that this consideration of the topic of predestination will give all readers a better understanding of the justification sanctification and glorification that comprise our gracious salvation and this knowledge will also make us more fruitful jn 15 7 8 if my words abide in you herein is my father glorified that you bear much fruit

The End of Spectator Church

2023-03-21

moving from passivity to purpose for many christians church is defined by attending an occasional sunday service mired in an audience mentality virtually ineffective and having no impact we have become a cultural christianity that creates passive believers yet the church is meant for so much more tony cooke challenges the way some see church with biblical and historical evidence that paints a radically different picture through new testament exhortations tony mobilizes the body of christ to action he reminds us to be a living fully engaged body carrying life to those who are lost and without hope the end of spectator church launches you from inactivity to full participation across the street across town or across the ocean tony writes with contagious zeal and encouragement as he reveals your divine purpose for such a time as this hurting people are waiting on the gifts inside you the body of christ only functions fully when each part is in place what the true priesthood of all believers looks like today the call to radical engagement is sounding and it's time to answer take your place in a fully awakened and activated church

Romans 9 - 11

all my books can be read online for free at wayneodonnell.com mt 10 8 freely you have received freely give this booklet is included in and comprises of one section of my book predestination is to glory

not to faith anti calvinism reformed theology pro certainty of sanctification glorification in romans 8 romans 9 john 6 as in romans 8 we were predestined to glorification not to faith or unbelief so in romans 9 israel was predestined to glorification not to faith or unbelief the best way to demonstrate this is by paul s examples of the adversaries pharaoh and moses despite the unscriptural claims of calvinists pharaoh wasn t hardened about believing in god or the gospel over and over the scripture makes it clear that god hardened pharaoh s heart about not letting his people go i will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go ex 4 21 see also ex 7 14 8 32 9 7 10 20 27 11 10 etc and god didn t harden pharaoh s heart so that he would go to hell but so that once pharaoh had made his decision not to let israel go he wouldn t give in too soon due to weakness or aversion to pain so that god could complete all ten plagues and destroy the mightiest army in the world of that time in the sea so that all the world would hear of it i will harden pharaoh s heart and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of egypt so that i can lay my hand on egypt and bring forth my armies and my people the children of israel out of the land of egypt by great judgments ex 7 3 4 see also ex 10 1 2 7 9 1 14 4 17 and in our passage even for this same purpose i have raised you an unbeliever up to be pharaoh so that i could show my power in you and so that my name would be declared throughout all the earth rm 9 17 in contrast to pharaoh moses accomplished something that wasn t predestined at all through his free will choice when israel sinned by worshipping the golden calf moses interceded and was granted mercy for them but then moses went beyond even that and asked to see god s glory as a gracious favor and was also granted that request moses said i beseech you show me your glory and the lord said i will make all my goodness pass before you and will be gracious to whom i will be gracious and will show mercy on whom i will show mercy ex 33 18 19 god knows beforehand which vessels are destined for eternal glory and which are destined for eternal shame and it isn t unrighteous of him in his providential control to make use of both kinds of vessels in his plans during our time on earth he formed a man like pharaoh who is destined for eternal shame into a vessel to rule egypt so his name would be magnified in the earth at the time of israel s national birth and he gives men like moses and us experiences that help fit rom 9 22 and prepare rom 9 23 us for even more glorification our light affliction light compared to the weight of glory which is but for a moment a moment compared to the eternal glory produces for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory 2 cor 4 17 flowers non calvinist would anyone dare adopt or seek to defend this most troubling doctrine of reprobation if not for the perceived defense offered by the apostle in romans 9 pink calvinist it is a remarkable and telling phenomenon that those who find no individual predestination to eternal life in rom 9 6 13 cannot successfully explain the thread of paul s argument as it begins in rom 9 1 5 and continues through the chapter berkouwer calvinist every hesitation about or hidden resistance against the sovereign freedom of god every form of indeterminism which defends man s cooperation against the divine act will suffer shipwreck on romans 9 we shall see

The Unholy Trinity

2020-04-28

in this book i try to describe as clearly and simply as possible the christian journey from a life lived in worldliness and defeat to a life lived in and through the grace of god i use the biblical story of israel s journey from egypt to canaan in an allegorical sense to show how god through the activities and resources of the holy trinity tries to bring us to that place of living in grace and how the devil through the unholy trinity the world the flesh and demonic resistance seeks to thwart that journey i focus on three fronts in the battle between the two trinities on the first front the devil works indirectly through the world system egypt to deny us our freedom that we have due to the atonement living under the illusion of pleasure we end up in extreme bondage on the second front the devil works indirectly through our flesh amalek to hinder us from following the leadership of the holy spirit as he attempts to guide us into god s grace on the third front we can expect to experience a more direct conflict with the devil and his spiritual forces canaan these demonic forces will try to oppose and negate all the benefits of god s promised grace that comes into our lives through christ xxxxx

The Bethlehem Story

2021-04-14

jesus was born in bethlehem but why bethlehem why should god purpose to become man somewhere so marginal so insignificant this book follows the unfolding story of bethlehem through the bible from the death of rachel to the birth of jesus uniquely combining four perspectives a the bible as one developing story b the bible as a middle eastern book c insights from contemporary palestinians from bethlehem and d what this means for mission suffering rachel refugee rahab vulnerable ruth overlooked david all have a connection with bethlehem if bethlehem shelters refugees then so must we if bethlehem welcomes strangers so must we if bethlehem weeps at injustice and takes a stand against empire so must we what we see in bethlehem s story we apply to our own stories we enter into bethlehem s story with as much cultural and geographical colour and flavour as we can muster in order to feel the crises taste the dust hear the lambs bleating on the hillside and there we find the christ child son of david the good shepherd lion of judah bread of life lamb of god fulfilling all the recurring themes taking his inevitable place as rightful king

America's Fiscal Constitution

2014-04-01

what would washington jefferson madison lincoln the roosevelts truman and eisenhower have done about today s federal debt crisis america s fiscal constitution tells the remarkable story of fiscal heroes who imposed clear limits on the use of federal debt limits that for two centuries were part of an unwritten constitution those national leaders borrowed only for extraordinary purposes and relied on well defined budget practices to balance federal spending and revenues that traditional fiscal constitution collapsed in 2001 afterward for the first time in history federal elected officials cut taxes during war funded permanent new programs entirely with debt grew dependent on foreign creditors and claimed that the economy could not thrive without routine federal borrowing for most of the nation s history conservatives fought to restrain the growth of government by insisting that new programs be paid for with taxation while progressives sought to preserve opportunities for people on the way up by balancing budgets virtually all mainstream politicians recognized that excessive debt could jeopardize private investment and national independence with original scholarship and the benefit of experience in finance and public service bill white dispels common budget myths and distills practical lessons from the nation s five previous spikes in debt america s fiscal constitution offers an objective and hopeful guide for people trying to make sense of the nation s current most severe debt crisis and its impact on their lives and our future

A Plea for the Animals

every cow just wants to be happy every chicken just wants to be free every bear dog or mouse experiences sorrow and feels pain as intensely as any of us humans do in a compelling appeal to reason and human kindness matthieu ricard here takes the arguments from his best sellers altruism and happiness to their logical conclusion that compassion toward all beings including our fellow animals is a moral obligation and the direction toward which any enlightened society must aspire he chronicles the appalling sufferings of the animals we eat wear and use for adornment or entertainment and submits every traditional justification for their exploitation to scientific evidence and moral scrutiny what arises is an unambiguous and powerful ethical imperative for treating all of the animals with whom we share this planet with respect and compassion

jazz in socialist hà nội improvisations between worlds examines the germination and growth of jazz under communist rule perceived as the music of the enemy and ideologically decadent in the vietnamese capital of hà nội after disappearing from the scene in 1954 following the end of the first indochina war jazz reemerged in the public sphere decades later at the end of the cold war since then hà nội has established itself as a vital and vibrant jazz center complete with a full jazz program in the national conservatoire featuring interviews with principal players involved in cultivating the scene from past to present this book presents the sociocultural encounters between musicians and the larger powers enmeshed in the broader political economy detailing jazz s journey to garner respect comparable to classical music as an art form possessing high artistic value ethnographical sketches explore how vietnamese musicians learn and play jazz while sustaining and nurturing the scene providing insight as to how jazz managed to grow in such an environment jazz in socialist hà nội sheds light on those underlying caveats that allow vietnamese jazz musicians to navigate the middle grounds between worlds between music and politics not as an act of resistance but as realisation of artistic expression

The Reinvention of Populist Rhetoric in The Digital Age

2016-11-23

this highly original work considers the rhetoric of political actors and commentators who identify digital media as the means to a new era of politics and democracy placing this rhetoric in a historical and intellectual context it provides a compelling explanation of the reinvention and thematic recurrence of democratic discourse the author investigates the populist sources of rhetoric used by digital politics enthusiasts as outsiders inaugurating new eras of democracy with digital media such as barack obama and julian assange and explores the generations of rhetorical and political history behind them the book places their rhetoric in the context of the permanent tensions between insiders and outsiders between the political class and the populace which are inherent to representative democracy through a theoretical and conceptual research that is historically grounded and comparative it offers rhetorical analysis of candidates for the 2016 presidential election and discusses digital democracy particularly discussing their origins in american populism and their influence on other countries through americanization uniquely it offers a sceptical assessment of epochal claims and a historical rhetorical account of two of the defining figures of twentieth century politics to date and reveals how modern rhetoric is grounded in an older form of anti politics and mobilises tropes that are as old as representative democracy itself necessary trouble is the definitive book on the movements that are poised to permanently remake american politics we are witnessing a moment of unprecedented political turmoil and social activism over the last few years we ve seen the growth of the tea party a twenty first century black freedom struggle with blacklivesmatter occupy wall street and the grassroots networks supporting presidential candidates in defiance of the traditional party elites sarah jaffe leads readers into the heart of these movements explaining what has made ordinary americans become activists as jaffe argues the financial crisis in 2008 was the spark the moment that crystallized that something was wrong for years jaffe crisscrossed the country asking people what they were angry about and what they were doing to take power back she attended a people s assembly in a church gymnasium in ferguson missouri walked a picket line at an atlanta burger king rode a bus from new york to ohio with student organizers and went door to door in queens days after hurricane sandy from the successful fight for a 15 minimum wage in seattle and new york to the halting of shell s arctic drilling program americans are discovering the effectiveness of making good necessary trouble regardless of political alignment they are boldly challenging who wields power in this country

International Conflict and Cyberspace Superiority

this book examines cyberspace superiority in nation state conflict from both a theoretical and a practical perspective this volume analyses superiority concepts from the domains of land maritime and air to build a model that can be applied to cyberspace eight different cyberspace conflicts between nation states are examined and the resulting analysis is combined with theoretical concepts to present the reader with a conclusion case studies include the conflict between russia and estonia 2007 north korea and the us and south korea 2009 and saudi arabia and iran in the aramco attack 2012 the book uses these case studies to examine cyberspace superiority as an analytical framework to understand conflict in this domain between nation states furthermore the book makes the important distinction between local and universal domain superiority and presents a unique model to relate this superiority in all domains as well as a more detailed model of local superiority in cyberspace through examining the eight case studies the book develops a rigorous system to measure the amount of cyberspace superiority achieved by a combatant in a conflict and seeks to reveal if cyberspace superiority proves to be a significant advantage for military operations at the tactical operational and strategic levels this book will be of much interest to students of cyber conflict strategic studies national security foreign policy and ir in general

Just Watch Us

2018-03-21

from the late 1960s to the mid 1980s in the midst of the cold war and second wave feminism the rcmp security service prompted by fears of left wing and communist subversion monitored and infiltrated the women s liberation movement in canada and quebec just watch us investigates why and how this movement was targeted weighing carefully the presumed threat its left wing ties presented to the canadian government against the defiant challenge its campaign for gender equality posed to canadian society based on a close reading of thousands of pages of rcmp documents declassified under canada s access to information act and the corresponding privacy act just watch us demonstrates that the security service s longstanding anti communist focus distorted its threat assessment of feminist organizing combining gender analysis and critical approaches to state surveillance christabelle sethna and steve hewitt consider the machinations of the rcmp including its bureaucratic evolution intelligence gathering operations and impact as well as the evolution of the women s liberation movement from its broad transnational influences to its elusive quest for unity among women across lines of ideology and identity significantly the authors also grapple with the historiographical methodological and ethical difficulties of working with declassified security documents and sensitive information a sharp eyed inquiry into spy policies and tactics in cold war canada just watch us speaks to the serious political implications of state surveillance for social justice activism in liberal democracies

Superpower Interrupted

2020-06-09

this global history as the chinese would write it gives brilliant and unconventional insights for understanding china s role in the world especially the drive to make china great again we in the west routinely ask what does china want the answer is quite simple the superpower status it always had but briefly lost in this colorful informative story filled with fascinating characters epic battles influential thinkers and decisive moments we come to understand how the chinese view their own history and how its narrative is distinctly different from that of western civilization more important we come to see how this unique chinese history of the world shapes china s economic policy attitude toward the united states and the rest of the world relations with its neighbors positions on democracy and human rights and notions of good government as the chinese see it for as far back as anyone can remember china had the richest economy the strongest military and the most advanced philosophy culture and technology the collision with the west knocked china s historical narrative off course for the first time as its 5 000 year reign as an unrivaled superpower came to an ignominious end ever since the chinese have licked their wounds and fixated on returning their country to its former greatness restoring the chinese version of its place in the world as they had always known it for the chinese the question was never if they could reclaim their former dominant position in the world but when
