castles in the air is an attempt to open discussions on some often overlooked issues which affect education particularly in rural and township government schools in order to make it a truly south african drama i have drawn from oral tradition by including songs and poems which play an integral part in traditional storytelling there are many folksongs which were included in earlier versions but i decided to remove them in the final version because i did not intend to write a musical there are also some praise poems that i composed for the main character and his father i studied oral tradition and i am confident that the praise poems i composed have all the qualities of the real praise poems and because i could not compose them in english i therefore wrote them in isizulu with translations in the glossary at the end originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the eastern cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts whose history counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history the reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the rhodesmustfall campaign which started at the university of cape town on 9 march 2015 key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum this book is a direct response to this clarion call
