three people living in tel aviv haifa and jerusalem embark on distinct journeys that converge at the file their efforts to admit palestine to the olympics in the early twentieth century their pivotal roles in history have been purposely omitted from official record kept secret or forgotten why because of the nazi olympics in 1936 in berlin and because of the death in 1972 of eleven israeli olympic athletes in the munich massacre this book narrates the previously untold history of a palestine olympic committee recognized before the creation of the state of israel in 1948 it sheds light on some of the darkest events in sport history exposing secretive relationships behind the doors of the jerusalem ymca nazi agitation arrests internments and other intrigue in the complicated history of israeli and palestinian sport the file breaks new ground at the intersection of sport and politics illuminating the hope tension and horror of the 20s 30s and 40s the creation of the state of israel and the palestinian refugees and the resulting guerrilla attack at the olympics in munich in 1972 and reveals a handful of heroes whose impact on athletes and international sport competitions is still felt today consultant and researcher san charles haddad weaves a true and masterful tale of forgotten personalities in a conflict characterized by unabated venom bringing hope and new questions in his wake what will be the future of israel and palestine and how might sport play a restorative role in the twenty first century
